

Bella

Bella was found alone in an empty parking lot. The dog catcher had been trying to get her for 6 weeks. It took me only 3 days to earn her trust. She ended up coming up to my car, crying with fear and anxiety, and giving me a hug. She knew I wanted to help her.

Bella needs the right home to understand her. She's got a place at our sanctuary until that home is found.

Kate

Kate was found living in a field, crossing 5 lanes of traffic each day to beg for food at a gas station. She had to be trapped as she was feral, no one could catch her. After years of rehab, Kate is ready for the right home that understands her shy side.

Until that day comes, she has a place at our sanctuary where she plays all day with other dogs awaiting a home to call their own.

Saxer

Saxer was found living on a dirt road. He was covered in ticks and scars from fighting. His neglect was so severe one of his eyes moved back and forth inside his eye socket because the muscle in his head was deteriorating.

He would love a home that understood his bouncy nature. Until then, he's got us.
